You must disclose details of all unspent and unfiltered spent reprimands, formal warnings, cautions and convictions.

Any information given will be treated as confidential. You should note that disclosing a conviction does not necessarily bar you from appointment, unless the information received is considered to make you unsuitable. In making such a decision, consideration will be given to the nature of the offence, when it occurred, your age at the time and any other relevant factors. Failure to disclose may result in withdrawal from any job offer or result in summary dismissal if the discrepancy is discovered at a later date.
